

stage of the case, it is an occasion should arise.

Mr. BROWN: In the Harris explanation there?

Mr. COOPER: They have nothing to do with the Harris defense.

REDACTOR OF THE HERALD: None.

Mr. BROWN: You have stated that you reside in Albany?

A. Yes, sir. Q. You know Mr. Charles McNeil?

A. I do not. Q. Do you know his general reputation?

Mr. COOPER: None.

The court sustained the objection, and the examination of the witness closed.

Plautz then proceeded to read the article of the New York Tribune, in an Albany Evening Journal, treating of the whole subject at some length.

The court adjourned to ten o'clock this morning.

Order of General Domes.

Cairo, Dec. 20, 1864.

General Davis has issued an order by which all exemptions from military duty, heretofore granted in the district of West Tennessee, will be void after the 1st of January next; and all persons between the ages of eighteen and forty-five, claiming exemption from any cause, must make proper proof and procure a certificate before that date.

Persons wishing to be examined by the board will first report to the headquarters of the militia, and pay two dollars, which will go to the credit of the militia fund. Certificates of exemption will be granted for six months, and no longer, unless special applications will be immediately assigned to some purpose.

Ministers of the Gospel, in the actual performance of their functions, or such civil officers as have been appointed by the President or Cabinet officers, operators and clerks of telegraphs, the postmaster, telegraph and couriers of the officers of the army and navy.

All others, including government employees, aliens and rebel deserters, between eighteen and forty-five years, must appear before the district all who are derelict will be made to pay $100 for the benefit of the militia fund.

All persons employing able bodied negroes are to be held accountable that such are provided with exemption or certificates of membership in the colored troops. Persons failing to do so, or report or delinquency will be fined a fine of $50.

Another order requires persons taking out liquor licenses in the city of Memphis to pay a tax of thirty dollars per month.
